BYU STUDENT HEALTH CENTER

The Student Health Center is located on the northeast corner of Campus (900 East and 1700 North) and offers a variety of health services to students, their spouses and their children. For office hours, check here.

BYU Health Insurance

BYU students enrolled 3/4-time (9.0 credit hours during Fall/Winter Semesters) or more are required to have health insurance. Each student is automatically enrolled in BYU's Student Health Plan. If you’re already covered by a different health insurance plan, you may waive the BYU plan.

What can you go to the Health Center for?

- Physicals (including mission physicals)
- Urgent Care
- Health concerns (e.g. colds)
- Immunizations
- Pharmacy
- Physical therapy
- Lab work & x-rays
- Premarital classes & exams
