WHERE DO BUY TEXTBOOKS?

HOW MUCH DO TEXTBOOKS COST?
The BYU Store has everything you need so you can get the best prices on textbooks, even if you purchase from an off-campus vendor.

01 Ways To Pay For Textbooks

ARE YOU STRAPPED FOR CASH?
When you pay for your textbooks, use your BYU ID Card to charge them to your university student account. This will put the cost of all your textbooks on Myfinancial Center, where excess scholarship money may be applied. It also gives you 45 days from the day of purchase to pay for your textbooks.

02 How To Buy Textbooks

WHY USE MYBOOKLIST?
MYBOOKLIST links to your class schedule and shows exactly which books you’ll need. It also shows price comparisons to other textbook purchasing and rental sites. You can even order your books straight from MyBooklist. If you order with the BYU Store, you have the option of in-store pickup to avoid long checkout lines.

03 Great Tips For Textbook

SHOULD I KEEP MY RECEIPT?
Receipts are required to return textbooks. Additionally, refund deadlines are listed on receipts. That’s one valuable piece of paper!

WHAT IS BYU BOOK EXCHANGE?
Still trying to find a good deal on books? BYU BOOK EXCHANGE operates like a classified ad system among BYU students for textbooks.

WHAT IS TEXTBOOK SELLBACK?
At the end of the semester, the BYU Store may offer up to 50% of the new price on textbooks if those textbooks have been requested to be used in future classes. If not, the BYU Store may buy back textbooks at 10-30% on behalf of a national wholesaler.
