NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION?

WHAT TO KNOW ABOUT NSO?
The purpose of New Student Orientation (NSO) is to help new students learn about resources, programs, and policies; meet other students, staff and faculty; and experience BYU traditions.

01
BYU ID Card

HOW DO I GET A BYU ID CARD?

Click HERE to find out how to get your BYU ID Card! You’ll use your BYU ID Card frequently, from taking exams to going to the Student Fitness Center. In order to obtain your ID Card you will need a few things:

1- A photo ID (driver’s license, passport, etc.)
2- Your BYU Net ID
3- You must be dressed and groomed according to the BYU Honor Code.

For ID Center Hours visit: idcenter.byu.edu

02
NSO Schedule

PREPARED FOR ORIENTATION?

NSO Check-In: THURSDAY, AUGUST 25TH
Helaman Field (just south of Lavell Edwards Stadium)

Heritage Halls
8:30 - 8:45 a.m.

Helaman Halls
8:45 - 9:00 a.m.

Wyview and Off-campus
9:00 - 9:15 a.m

Late check-in will be available at noon on Brigham Square after Convocation.

On-Campus Housing Move-In:
Students can start moving in on Wednesday, August 24th at 10:00 am. Find more information on your housing check-in HERE.

Off-Campus Housing Move-In:
Varies by complex. Check with your housing’s office.

03
Maps & Directions

WHERE DO I NEED TO GO?

-Click HERE for driving directions to BYU campus and a parking map.

- Parking is available at the Marriott Center and Lavell Edwards Stadium (lots 19, 20, 45, 48, & 49).

- There is no parking or drop-off available at Helaman Field.

-Click HERE for a general BYU Campus map.

Orientation App

WHERE DO I GET IT?

- Search for “BYU NSO” in the App or Play Store to download the New Student Orientation App.

If you didn’t register for orientation, you can still attend. Simply come to check-in and we’ll help you out. Find the NSO schedule HERE.