READY TO MOVE TO BYU?
Living at BYU can be a really great experience! There are lots of opportunities to make new friends and have loads of fun. Here’s some tips for choosing your housing.

On-Campus Housing
THE BEST FRESHMAN EXPERIENCE
First-year students are not required to live on-campus, but it is highly recommended. On-campus housing helps students have a great social life, as well as receive help from the Residence Life staff. Become part of the on-campus citizens!

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING OPTIONS
Heritage Halls / $366 – $444
+ Apartment-style living with common areas
+ Newest housing on campus

Helaman Halls / $348 – $476
+ Dorm-style living
+ Meal plan required

Wyview Park / $250–$322
+ Traditional apartment living
+ Must be 19 years or older

Meal Plans
IF YOU EAT FOOD, THIS IS FOR YOU
WHY HAVE A BYU MEAL PLAN?
It’s important to take care of your body so that you can perform well and be happy. Meal Plans are quick, easy, and include dining locations all over campus.

Meal plans can help students living in apartment-style housing to balance their expenses on food. It is required for students living in Helaman Halls to purchase a meal plan.

MEAL PLAN OPTIONS
Click HERE to browse the BYU Meal Plans. When you buy a plan, the funds will show up on your BYU ID card. Check your meal plan balance online at My Dining Account or on the BYU App.

Your meal plan can be used at any Dining Services location on campus, except for Campus Floral and BYU Concessions.

Off-Campus Housing
NOT AN ON-CAMPUS PERSON?
Off-campus living can also be a great experience. When searching for off-campus living, please keep the following guidelines in mind:

BYU Approved
+ Off-campus housing for single students must be approved. To see requirements, click HERE.

Housing Waiver
+ You can live with your family, but you must submit an Off-Campus Housing Waiver by the add/drop deadline (6 days after class starts).
