BUT WHERE DO I BEGIN?
It can be hard to remember everything you need and where to find it on BYU’s websites. Thankfully, BYU has organized tools to help you quickly find the info you need.

myBYU
YOUR ACCESS TO EVERYTHING

WHAT IS MYBYU?
myBYU is a customizable website that provides university information specific to you. myBYU lets you access My Financial Center, register for classes, update personal information, and more!

You will use myBYU throughout your time at BYU, so it’s a good idea to familiarize yourself with the site before you get here.

Click HERE to get to know myBYU.

Also make sure to update your information on myBYU. You can update them by clicking on the links below:
+ Contact Information
+ Parking Pass
+ Financial Activity

Enrollment Services
TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE BREAK!

Enrollment Services’ website is a great place to start when thinking about:
+ Financial Aid
+ Admissions
+ Scholarships
+ Registration
+ Student Accounts

A lot of information and tasks can be found online. Enrollment Services provides checklists for students and quick links. Use these lists to make your experience simple and low stress.

While a lot of tasks are online, Enrollment Services also has in-person help for both quick guidance or in-depth situations. As you prepare to come to campus they are happy to answer any questions through YMessage or by calling 801-422-4104.

Click HERE to visit Enrollment Services and get acquainted!

BYU ACTIVITIES: A WEEK IN PREVIEW
Follow us on Instagram @byu1styear to get updates on weekly activities across campus. Look for the “Week Activities” story. There you can find out about social and sporting events, as well as academic conferences.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION
New Student Orientation (NSO) is the best way to orient yourself with campus! Come and learn about BYU while you get free stuff and have tons of fun! At NSO you’ll make new friends and meet experienced upperclassmen who will share their tips and tricks with you. Click HERE to watch the NSO highlight video!
