WHY IS A MENTOR RIGHT FOR YOU?
As a new student you will be given a First-Year Mentor to help you transition and make the most of your experience at BYU.

Summer Information
GETING PREPPED FOR SCHOOL

PRE-SEMESTER INFORMATION
Over the summer you will have a Peer Mentor assigned to help you with any questions you may have before starting at BYU.

You will receive an introductory email and multiple texts from your Peer Mentor informing you about important upcoming dates and other information to help you prepare to come to campus.

Be sure your email address in myBYU Personal Information is updated and correct so your mentor can contact you.

First-Year Mentoring
A MENTOR JUST FOR YOU!

FIRST-YEAR CLASSES
You are expected to fulfill your First-Year Writing and American Heritage General Education requirements. The First-Year Mentoring Program holds seats in these and other high-demand GE classes for new students.

We’ll tell you how to register for mentored courses on the mentoring page of our website. To visit the page, click HERE.

ONE-ON-ONE MEETINGS
Your peer mentor will contact you to set up a meeting to get to know you better and connect you to campus resources. Along with these meetings during the school year, your mentor will email important information to you such as, upcoming deadlines, practical tips, and campus happenings.

New Student Orientation
THE BEST WAY TO START

New Student Orientation (NSO) is the best way to orient yourself with campus! Come and learn about BYU while you get free stuff and have tons of fun! At NSO you’ll make new friends and meet experienced upperclassmen who will share their tips and tricks with you.

Click HERE for more information on New Student Orientation and to find the dates of your NSO.

BYU ACTIVITIES:
A WEEK IN PREVIEW
Follow us on Instagram @byu1styear to get updates on weekly activities across campus. Look for the “Week Activities” story. There you can find out about social and sporting events, as well as academic conferences.
